MAHARASHTRA STATE BOARD OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION

(Autonomous) (ISO 9001:2015) (ISO/IEC 27001 : 2013)

4th floor, Government Polytechnic Building, 49, Kherwadi, Bandra (East) Mumbai – 400 051

Tel No: 022- 62542103 /62542105 Web : www.msbte.org.in Email : secretary@msbte.com

- In case, the examinee prefers to end the examination prior to the allocated time of one hour, he/she shall;
  - ✓ Ten minutes after the start of examination, navigate to question number 40 which results in the appearance of “End- exam” option.
  - ✓ Click the “End Exam” option on the screen which results in confirmation popup to appear on the screen.
  - ✓ Reconfirm “End Exam” to end the examination.

Note: Once the examinee ends the examination, he/she will not be able to take up the same examination again.

- The examinee shall not receive call, notification or try to switch browser on the device on which he/she is attempting online examination. Such an action leads to interruption of examination.
- In case, the online examination is interrupted due to power failure / Internet connectivity failure / failure of device / any other reason, the examinee need not panic. He / She can adopt the following steps;
  - Rectify the reason for the interruption and login after 10 minutes from the time of interruption. There is no need for seeking clear session from the institute.

It is to be noted that;

- The countdown timer for online examination freezes at the moment of interruption and restarts at resumption. Hence examinee does not lose any time in the online examination.
- The questions attempted and saved till the time of interruption will remain intact. Hence the examinees answers till the time of interruption remain intact.
- However, in case frequent interruptions are observed in case of any examinee, it may be treated as an attempt to malpractice and the examinee has to justify the interruptions with substantiating reasons.

7. The mock online examination is proctored through online invigilator.

The online invigilator sends the warning message to the examinee through chat box in case suspicious behaviour of examinee is noticed. Once a warning message pops up, the examination gets disabled with count down timer on. The examinee has to take note of warning & press “Okay Noted” button on the pop up window to resume examination. The warnings issued to examinee are recorded by the exam software. Not complying with warnings received from invigilator will lead to repetition of warning and will further lead to booking of malpractice case against the examinee. Some typical suspicious behaviour with corresponding warnings is as under;

Warning Number	Suspicious Action	Template of warning
1	Poor Visibility of Student due to bad or improper light	You are not visible properly. Adjust you position such that adequate light falls on your face. If you do not comply, you will be booked for malpractice.
2	Examinee not present before the screen.	You have moved away from screen of your device. Repeat of such action will lead to registering of malpractice case against you.
3	The person present in front of examination screen changes in between.	Examinee is impersonated by other person. A malpractice case is being registered against you.
4.	Examinee seen with additional communication device (Mobile / Tablet) while giving online examination.	You appear access information while giving online examination. Repeat of such action will lead to registering of malpractice case against you.
